

Cornerstone consecration

Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Iowa Ancient Freehand and Accepted Masons Lester Fleming (left) watches Monday as the lodge's Junior Grand Warden Right Worshipful John Barry Kane pours oil as part of the cornerstone-laying ceremony for the newly renovated West Liberty Free Public Library. As part of the ceremony, the building was consecrated with corn, wine and oil, all symbolic virtues of morality, justice, truth and brotherly love.
